

“European Arctic Oil & Gas: Experiences and Development”

Herbert Reul MEP (EPP), Michael Gahler MEP (EPP), and Vicky Ford MEP (ECR), welcome you to a seminar that addresses the role of Arctic oil and gas resources for European industry, the local Arctic population and European security of supply.

6 March 2012

Venue: European Parliament – Room 1A 002

Time: 16:00 – 19:00

Registration from 15:00, at the Mall entrance (Facing Place Luxembourg)

Please register your name with sirin.engen@northnorway.org

If you require an access badge to enter the European Parliament, please send the following details when you register: Name, nationality, address, date of birth, ID type and ID number

In cooperation with:

EU ARCTIC Forum

Agenda:

16:15 Opening Remarks, MEP Herbert Reul
16:25 Offshore oil and gas, MEP Vicky Ford

The Arctic Resource Potential

16:35 Bo Diczfalusy, Director of Sustainable Energy Policy and Technology,
International Energy Agency

Industry Perspective: European Arctic resources; current projects and future plans

16:55 Øivind Dahl-Stamnes, Vice President High North Initiative, Statoil ASA
17:15 Arild Glæserud, License Director, ENI Norway

Local community perspectives: Added value to communities

- 17.30 Odd Eriksen, President of Nordland County, North Norway
17.45 Jørgen T. Hammeken-Holm, Head of License Department, Bureau of Minerals and Petroleum, Government of Greenland

Technological aspects of working in Arctic conditions

- 18.00 Solutions adapted to the circumstances
Henrik Steine Madsen, Sales Manager Europe, Siemens Oil & Gas, Subsea Solutions
18.15 Contingency plans
Geir Morten Skeie, Sensitive Environments Decision Support Group, Akvaplan-Niva

Debate

- 18.30 Q&A session
18.55 Closing remarks, MEP Gahler

RECEPTION
(Sponsored by Statoil)